business.' That same day, he proposed marriage to me. Amazingly, the lady I invited to service called me to share her testimony. A day after the Marital Breakthrough Banquet, she also got a proposal. Indeed, GOD of Wonder-Double is a rewarder. I give Him all the glory for bringing me back home!” —Odiaka, C. Anita

Everyone of us is hereby admonished as follows, as we engage in the pursuit of 'By All Means 2016':

- Only those who endure the mockery of today, will enjoy the glory that tomorrow holds in stock —Heb. 6:15.

- Only those who will not be deterred by mockers in their Kingdom advancement endeavours, will end up as stars in the Kingdom —Dan 12:3

- We must recognise that mockery will always precede the glory —Lk. 8:49-56/ Mk. 14:62-65

This is why the Bible enjoins us to go outside the gate bearing His reproach, that is, to go all out in reaching out to the lost, bearing His reproach, giving the mockers room to mock us so that our Maker can make us —Heb. 13:13

But the key to indifference to mockeries is to remain in love with Christ by being dedicated to His cause, and burning with the zeal of the house of the Lord in advancing the cause of His Kingdom tirelessly —SoS. 8:6-7/ Rom. 8:35-38/ Jn. 12:24-26/ Ps 69:9

Therefore, we must become smarter than our mockers by remaining committed to seeking first the interests of the Kingdom of God, so that all other things that people are mocking us about can be turned into testimonies in our lives to the glory of God.

From Glory to Glory, that is where you are going!

Jesus is Lord!

WINNERS’ CHAPEL INTERNATIONAL, TORONTO, CANADA
The testimony of one of us clearly illustrates this truth:

“Since 2010, we believed God for the fruit of the womb. During the in-gathering season in 2013, we engaged in soul-winning and were mocked by people, who said that we did what we were doing out of frustration of barrenness. One day, while sharing the Word of God with some colleagues at work during the break time, quoting Psalm 34:10, which says: The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing, a colleague interrupted me and asked, 'Are children not good things? Why then has God not given you one?' At that moment, I remembered the testimony of a sister who was mocked during soul-winning and God blessed her the same month. Then, I said to myself that my time has come and God indeed visited me. In July 2013, I was confirmed pregnant and delivered a bouncing baby boy in February 2014. I give all the glory to the God of this Church, Who is not a user of men but a rewarer!” —Mrs. Esther Okpara

We discover from the testimony above that the nearer we are to our breakthrough, the more brutal the mockery becomes as in the case of Christ.

Mockery appears to be the cross we must bear before we qualify to wear the crown of glory —Mk 8:34/38

We must therefore refuse to be ashamed of Christ or His word, for that is where lies the fulfilment of our glorious destiny.”

The following testimonies attest to this truth:

3-Year Career Stagnation Destroyed via Kingdom Stewardship!

“I graduated from secondary school in 2012 with the best result in my school of about 100 students. Since then, securing admission into the university became an unreachable goal. The first year, I passed my UTME and even the Post-UTME but I was not offered admission. This ordeal continued until this year. Meanwhile, I was always dedicated to the Kingdom but this year, I became more committed to serving God.

When the Wonder-Double agenda was declared, I knew it was my season of remembrance. So, I engaged in it tirelessly. I stopped praying for myself and started praying for the Kingdom. I also engaged in personal and corporate outreaches. While witnessing Jesus on a certain day, during the Operation Rescue season, a man mocked us saying, 'How much is Oyedepo paying you for this.' However, I remained focused despite the mockery because my father, Bishop Oyedepo, said 'Allow them to mock you so that God can make you.' On Tuesday night, when I checked my admission status, I saw that I have been offered admission to study civil engineering at the Federal University of Agriculture, Abeokuta. God has destroyed career stagnation in my life. To Him alone be all the glory!” —Obiechefu Chinonso

Marital Siege Broken!

“I am one of the returning members of this great Commission. Towards the end of the first phase of Wonder-Double Prophetic Agenda, I picked a flier which called all embattled winners home. I decided to come back home and participated fully in the Mathew 6:33 mission. Although it was a week to its end, I told myself that the law of 11th hour labourer covered me. That week, I came to service with two souls and thereafter, I received a call that I was one of the awardees of a brand new car.

When the Bishop declared the second phase of the Wonder-Double Agenda tagged, Operation Rescue, I also engaged fully. During one of the morning raids that week, I invited a lady to the Marital Banquet Service scheduled for Sunday. She had lost hope in marriage and men, so I told her to come because I know that GOD will do something great for her. When she asked if I was married, I answered, 'No, but I'm certain my marital issue will be settled tomorrow.' During the Marital Breakthrough Banquet Service, the Bishop prophesied that some of us would receive proposal that same day. I believed the word of God's servant and received my portion. Like magic, when I got home, I received a message from a business contact who hasn't called me in a long while. I tried to discuss business with him but he said, 'No, it's you I am interested in now, not
